one month.

WILMINGTON, N. O., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1870.

BIGHSPESON'S NEW METHOD

PIANOFORTE in popularity all instruction for the Piano, There is hardly a nutry containing a pianoforte with-Capratol book, Annual sale 25,000, and usual hour.

> ant post-paid on receipt of price. | names. son & CO., Boston. H. DITSON, & OO., New York.

mand is increasing i'nblished with both three months, in advance, .... 3 00

...... 1 00

WARNING.

DID PUMP FOR SALE. he manufacture and sale of A. iff and Coroner. Patent Glass Submerged Douacting Fores Pamp, I hereby forewarn, rights in the same. Intend- nays 73. c and sell the same, I would r with parties wanting thern. a will range from $20 to $30, according well, for No. 3 yard wells, median of water per minute; and and Vest. stations, throwing 60 gailons, lication. This pump has no packing will last for fifteen well. Directions will accoma parting it up, which can be officers.) I will receive orders at ad Noch, and Farmville, N. C .-

> ive prompt attention J. L. KITCHEN, beend to me at either of the places

MATERIAGE GUIDE 150 a missale instructor for married perabout to be married, both ow discoveries never before

H. G. CONNOR, Withson, N.C.,

> FOR DAN NORTH CAROLINA,

RIODICALS AND STANDARD TIONS GENERALLY.

cont in his Hamls will Receive

From the Raleigh Sentinel, OF THE LEGISLATURE | was adopted.

DUAL OF REPRESENTATIVES. Monday, March 14, 1870. TUHT SESSION.

e was called to order at 7;

to bill to incorporate committee be concurred in. -or the manuag of $100,000 bonds by showed that the operations of be intelerably oppressive to g his remarks, that the genn from Person, (Barnett) just as soon o'clock. pass, would pounce upon 1 $200,000 for another Road in a dif- | Whitley. portion of the county. Gentlemen and 2,100 colored, these 2,100 will or this and the other bill and will not the repeal of the bill in remarks of length. by of the tax, while the 1,400 white ots a minst both and have to pay all opposed the bill.

motion of Mr. Stilley the rules were | yeas 38, nays 37 : ic printing was taken up. (The bill very four years, a vacancy lled by the Governor, to do the printing of every description, inig the Supreme Court reports.) Durham said that gentlemen of his to examine the bill, therefore if Recans persisted in attempting to force I through to night, he should fight I all the means in his power. He to postpone and make special order tear day next at 12 o'clock.

as motion being voted down, a long a wee-ned between the friends and the bill, (party contest) consisting thy in the use of parliamentry tactics, the House finally adjourned without mug to a vote.

SENATE.

Tuesday, March 15, 1870. motion of Mr. Martindale the rules suspended and the bill amendatory ings. act to organize the militia of North the ratified the 19th day of August, was taken up.

a motion of Mr. Sweet it was amended to exempt "tiremen" in certain cases. dones of Wake moved to amend the y wriking out the clause exempting wen from military duty on the payof $2 annually.

Martindale called the previous queswhich was sustained.

Mesers. Burns, Blythe, Cook, Eppes, with the report of the various Railroad howay, col., Hayes; Hyman, col., Jones Bresidents is quite lengthy.

Presidents is quite lengthy. ale, Shoffner, Smith, Stephens, Sweet

Mesers. Barnes, Both, Borsley, Bee-Flythe, Graham, Harrington, Johns of mburg, Linden, Love, Mason, Melchor, member of the General Assembly. phy, Robbins, Welker, White, Whiteside and changed their votes to the negative. On motion the Senate adjourned until this evening at 7; o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Monday, March 14, 1870. The House was called to order at the referred.

SPECIAL ORDER

Bill to be entitled "an act concerning Representatives of this State in Congress an election and registration in the year to ase their influence to have the disa-1870. In section 1, which provides for the elec-URCHASED THE EXCLUSIVE tion of a Sheriff and Coroner, and other the States of North and South officers, Mr. Vest moved to strike out Sher-

The yeas and nays were called and the of the law, any person from motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 8. The following gentlemen voting in the affirmative : Messrs. Carson, Dixon, Down ing, McCanless, Proctor, Stilley, Sinclair Mr. Dixon moved to strike out in same mington section all after line 6. (This amendment does away with an election for county definite postponement of the bill. motion was rejected by a vote of year 4. siderable force, and urged the passage of ried. nays 73. The following gentlemen voted the bill.

Canless, Sinclair and Vest. The section was then adopted. Section 15 provides as follows:

the Registrar and Judges of election, in adjourned. relations of our sexual system, the presence of such of the electors as may a and prevention of offspring, choose to attend, shall open the boxes, one after another, and number the ballots of re ly a valuable and interesting one box before they shall open another, at in plain language for the the same time reading aloud the names of and a illustrated with numerous the persons who shall appear on each ticket, and if there shall be two tickets nue. should read this rolled up together, or any ticket shall con- The bill was discussed section by secsecrete that every one should tain the name of more persons than said tion. In section 1, class 1, which pro-tickets relied up together. Lost. Section 16 provides as follows:

"Returns from all the precincts shall be Upon all moneys, credits, investments in the House, on many a dellar, your made by noon. Saturday ensuing the day bonds, not exempted by law, five-twenof election, to the County Commissioners, tieths of one per cent. News Agent of election to make her returns."

> ing in line 5 after the word "officers," the viso the words "except special taxes for words "but the result of such election in county purposes ratified previous to the the case of members of the General As- ratification of this act." ernor by proclamation, and all returns of eggy of his amendment. sembly shall be made to the Governor and amendment was rejected by a vote of year Council of State within thirty days after 32, nays 52, the date of said election. Lost.

Mr. Jarvis offered a substitute, which in the House adjourned. substance provides that the County Commissioners shall compare the polls, and in the case of a tie vote shall declare who is the person elected.

After some little debate the substitute of yeas 83, nays 0. dered to be printed, and made the special corporate the Western Central Rai road order for to-morrow evening at half past | Company, was taken up and passed its sevseven o'clock.

quest and jury duty. Lies over.

By the same: A bill to amend the act | YEAS - Ames, Ashworth, Barnett, Candler, Cation of the bill which pro- Wilmington and Newbern, Lies over, Foster, French, Gahagan, Harris, of Wake, Sta section of the bill which pro- Wilmington and Newbern. Lies over. On motion the House adjourned.

> HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. EVENING SESSION.

Tuesday, March 15, 1870. House called to order at half past seven Leave of absence was granted to Messrs.

age of this bill on the ground were suspended and the bill to repeal the d to submit the proposition act to allow citizens of North Carolina to qualified voters of the county; now, practice in the Courts of the State, was these: There are 1,400 white taken up. (Does away with $20] lawyers.) Messrs. Sinclair and Malone advocated

Messrs. Leary, col., Foster and others bill passed its second reading by a vote of North Carolina & Atlantic and North Caro Yeas.—Messrs. Armstrong. Barnes, Eoddie, Candelr, Davis, Davidson, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Wake, Hicks, High, Hodnett, Humphries, Kelley, of Davie, Malone, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Proffitt, Ragland, Rea, Robinson.

Shaver, Sinclair, Smith. of Alleghany, Smith of Wayne, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Whitley, Wiliams of Harnet, Williams of Sampson. NAYS .- Messrs. Ashworth, Barnett, Carson Cathe House had been allowed no rey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Dixon, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin. French, Hendricks, Hillard Hinnant, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgins, Ingram, Justice of Henderson, Lattin, Leary. Long, o.

Chatham, Mayo, Morris, Pearson, Pou, Price, Reynolds, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, Vest, Waldrop. On motion of G. W. Price, col., the rules were suspended and the bill in relation to colored soldiers who were disabled in fight-the quarantine at the port of Wilmington, inp for the Union. Passed. was taken up and passed it several read-On motion of Mr. McMillan, the bill to influence to have the political disabilities annex a slight portion of New Hanover of all citizens of this State removed, county to Sampson county, was taken up and passed its several readings. On motion of Harris, of Wake, col., the instructions, which was voted down. bill concerning townships in Wake county was taken up and passed its several read-On motion the House adjourned.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, March 16, 1870. FROM THE HOUSE,

A message was received from the House ransmitting a communication from the Governor and Superintendent of Public Works, relating to bonds recently issued in amendment was adopted and the compliance with an "act to restore the voted down by the following construction of unfinished Railroads." The elections and registration in the year communication of the Governor, together 1870."

> Mr. Brogden moved that twenty copies tion, Mr. French moved to strike out Redeemer "who had not where to lay his ber, and lodges of New York and Brookof the communication and accompaning documents be printed for the use of each Mr. Welker moved to amond by substituting "five" copies for "twenty," which by this House.

vailed. BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Bellamy: Bill to repeal the acts incorporating the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency and the Catawba Land Company in the city of Charlotte; On motion of A. H. Galloway, colored,

On motion of Mr. Sinelair, the roll was the vote was reconsidered by which the called and 68 members responded to their militia bill was rejected on yesterday, amended and passed its third reading-18 By Mr. Love : Resolution requesting the > bilities of all the citizens of this State removed as soon as practicable. Mr. Love moved a suspension of the rules in order to put the resolution on ita several readings, which prevailed. Con siderable time was consumed in the discussion of this resolution. Pending its consideration the hour arrived for the Bill amendatory of an act relating to the inspection of rosin at the port of Wil-Messrs. Murphy and Robinson opin the affrmative: Messrs. Dixon, Mc- J. A. Hyman, colored demanded the previous question, which was sustained,

"When the election shall be finished, On motion of Mr. Martindale the Scuate

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Widnesday, March 16, 1870. SPECIAL GRDER.

Bill to be entitled an act to raise revestill it is a book that must elector has a right to vote for, in either of vides that there shall be an ad valorem al madis about the house. It will these cases such ticket shall not be num- tax of twenty five cents on every one huni. Young, No. 416 Spruce street, bered in taking the ballots, but shall be dred dollars in value of real and personal Mr. Proctor moved to strike out all that tions made by law. This tax shall be journed. portion which throws out two or more levied in addition to such special taxes as are authorized by the General Assembly from Jos. W. Holden, Esq., declining to blooming into maidenhood, apparently and Wishing some information, I ventured a as a witness. The murdered woman has for county purposes.

on stitled on any of the who shall diligently compare the same, Upon all stocks, joint stock companies, street, above Fourth, Phila- and proclaim the result thereof at the or otherwise, five-twentieths of one per court house, so far as county officers, in cent. of their each value : Provided, That cluding members of the General Assembly all the taxes for State and county pur- tensive and testefully laid out, and adorned cles of our city. The fact that both parare concerned, at noon of Saturday suc- poses, imposed upon all real and personal with arbors and statuary. The building ties bore the same Christian name excited South? ceeding the day of election: Provided, properly, shall in no case exceed two-That the county of Carteret shall be all thirds of one per cent., except special lowed until the first Tuesday after the day taxes for county purposes ratified previous | tunate proprietor was duly settled in it to the ratification of this act. Mr. Sinclair moved to amend by insert- Mr. Pou moved to strike out in the Pro> sembly shall be made known by the Gov- Mr. Pou argued for some time in advoelections for members of the General As- After a debate of some length the

Pending a discussion upon section 27

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 16, 1870. Mr. French for Committee on Countie After various amendments to other sec- and Townships, reported favorably upon the bill passed its second reading by a vote (out of portions of Craven and Beaufort). urge the matter. The bill was placed upon the Calendar, On motion of Mr. Jarvis the bill was or- On motion of Mr. Durham the bill to ineral readings.

By G. W. Price, col.: A bill to exempt | The discussion of the Revenue bill was members of organized fire companies in resumed and discussed for sometime, when the city of Wilmington from coroner's in- the bill passed its third reading by the following ballot:

Hendricks, Hinnant, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgings, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Laflin, Leay, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond Mayo, nless, Moore, of Chowan, Morris, Pearson, Price, Proctor, Renfrow, Reynolds, Sinclair, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stilley, etrad-wick, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Waldrep, Welch, Whit-where to lay his head." He was greatly NAVES - Armstrong, Boddie, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Ferebee, Gibson, Green, Gunter, Haw-kine, Hilliard, High, Hodgin, Humphries, Jarvis, of Davie, Malone, McMillan, Moore, o ther call for an appropria- | Smith of Alleghany, Hawkins, Barnes and Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Robinson Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Stevens, Sweat, On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules Thompson, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of On motion the Hou e adjourned.

> SENATE. THURSDAY, March 17, 1870.

BILLS INTRODUCED. By Mr. Forkner: Bill to anthorize the After a long debate Mr. Sinclair called sale of the State's interest in certain public The year and nays were called and the State, to sell the State's interest in the lina Railroads and in the Albemarle and

By Mr. Legg: Bill to amend an act incorporating the Cape Fear and Waccamew Land and Lumber Company. CALENDAR.

House resolution proposing to adjourn sine die on the 28th inst. Passed by a vote of year 35, nays 2. Those who voted in the negative were

Mr. Bellamy and A. H. Galloway, colored. House resolution in favor of white and Resolution requesting the Representa tives of this State in Congress to use their

Mr. Shoffner moved to refer the resolution to a special committee of three, with Messrs. Beasley, Brogden, Colgrove, Hyman, col., Jones of Wake, Long, Shoffner, Smith and Stephens voted in the affirmative. Mr. Love called the previous question, which wrs sastained, and the resolution passed unanimously.

On motion the Senate adjourned. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, March 17, 1870. SPECIAL ORDER. Bill to be entitled "an act concerning

In section 1, which names the different Sheriff."

head." now ten thousand times more prelyn. The procession of Masons exceeded in numbers any ever held there, being "Sheriff."

Mr. Shoffner and A. H. Galloway (col.) was lost and the original proposition pre The year and nays were called and the amendment was rejected by a vote of year A Romantic Tragedy A Virginian Marries 6, nays 68.

The following gentlemen voted in the affirmative : Messrs. Foster, Freuch, Mo-Canless, Sermonr, Sinclair and Vest, ballot, either written or printed. Mr. Vestal advocated the motion. Harris, of Wake, colored, opposed it.

tion of Clerks of the Superior Courts in all | kissed the morning sunbeams, there lived counties now holding by appointment. in the State of Virginia, on the banks of

ment on the table, rejected. [Here the resignation of Jos. wife, whom he had led to the altar but a May yet form the footstool of liberty's throne, W. Holden, Esq., both as the Speaker of year since, and an only child-a daughter and each simple wreck in the pathway and member of the House, to take effect of two months-and took up his lonely A. H. Galloway, colored, moved the in- to-morrow at 11 o'clock, was announced.— journey to seek his fortune in the wild, Mr. French moved that Mr. Holden be re- distant West, over and beyond the Rocky quested to withdraw his resignation as Mountains, where the bright and golden The year and nays being called the posed this motion in speeches of con- Speaker and member of the House. Car sun sinks down to rest amid the blue waves

> The debate upon the different amend ments to the election bill was resumed. Messrs. Downing and Moore, of Chow-and rejected. The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 88, nays 0.

Messrs. Gathing, Malone and others superted Mr. Pou's amendment.

Note -A communication was received

"All This for Me 1" A gentleman, a merchent of large fortune, had built for himself a beautiful and costly residence. The grounds were exwas furnished throughout in a style corresponding with its own elegance, and the forwith his happy and much envied family. It was not long before he was visited b an old friend, recently from California, who had there acquired great wealth, and and were gradually becoming better ac- fought for the South under Stonewall Jackhad returned to the more eastern States to enjoy it. He was shown through the elegant establishment and beautiful grounds, and was so much pleased with the whole, that he immediately proposed to purchase the entire property, offering a liberal "No," said the merchant, "nothing wor'd induce me to sell it. I have expen-

dee upon its plan much thought, and given to its execution much careful attention, in convenience and comfort of my family ; and here I expect to spend with them the remainder of my days." His friend retions, and the addition of other sections, the bill to establish the county of Pamlico | tired, convinced that it was useless to That evening as the merchant, surrounded by his family, sat in his sumptuous apariment, engaged in family worship, he read the chapter containing that touching declaration of our dear Redeemer respecting his own extreme poverty. "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where horses must not be fed in the same proto lay his head."

splendid walls and farniture, and his heart | Never use bad hay on account of its smote him. "All this for me," he said to cheapness, because there is not proper nourtroubled. He felt sorely rebuked by his because it brings on inflammation of the own selfish predigality. He saw, as never bowels and skin diseases. before, that in his case the servant was | Chaff is better for old horses than hay, indeed not as the master; that he had because they can chew and digest it betutterly failed to imitate his blessed Lord | ter. in the denial of self, but on the contrary Mix chaff with corn or beans, and do in all his expenditures was chiefly intent not give the latter alone, because it makes as his state of mind would permit, he better, closed the evening service, and retired to his private apartment. Here again, as he looked around upon not sufficient nutritive body in either. ments for comfort, the thought occurred should chiefly be oats-if not worked constantly revolving in his mind, and rose of food; hay not so much.

feverish and unrefreshed. expensive food, his heart again smote a quarter of a peck more oats. A horse him, and he mentally exclaimed, "All this which works harder may have rather more coats, which are either printed in imitabusy pedestrians and gay.

He walked forth into his garden. There lay his head." As the day wore on he became more vividly impressed with the thought of his but not for a young one, because the former, embossed with signs of great beauty. This ders, exclaiming: "I will show you whether own unfaithfulness as a steward of God, through age and defective teeth, cannot felted paper may in the end have a serious I am a coward." The cane was soon and his extreme selfishness in expending chew them properly; the young horse can influence on the production of the woven broken into pieces, and as Mr. Wilkes so much for himself and comparatively so do so, and they are thus properly mixed fabrics it is intended to displace. Imita- turned to escape punishment or to look for little for that dear Saviour who had sacri- with the saliva and turned into wholesome tion leather, impermeable to water, is like an officer, Leland dealt him several blows ficed so much for him. He saw that this same selfishness and extravagant expenditure must prove a snare to his soul, estranging him still more to Christ, and greatly increasing that love of the world which already had much too strong a hold Grand Master of the Masons of the State upon him.

where to lay his head."

virtually decided that these officers would tation of his love, filling his soul with a over two miles in length, and was withold over in spite of an election ordered peace and joy before unknown. - American nessed by thousands of citizens along the Messenger.

From the Ban Francisco Tribune. His own Daughter.

It was said by Solomon, who, in his day, was the wisest of men, that there is "nothing new under the san." It would seem, Mr. Gunter moved to strike out section from the frequent occurrence of remark. And the living tread light on the hearts of the 14, which provides that all the officers able incidents, that there is certainly whose election is ordered by the first sec-tion of this act, shall be voted for on one from the following wonderfully strange and hardly creditable story which came to our cars a few days since: After some debate the yeas and mays fever was at its highest possible state of Yes, give me the land that hath legends and were called and the amendment was reexcitement in California, and the yielding that tells of the memory of long vanished days; a bed in an upper room nearly naked; the Mr. Pou moved to amend section 1 by waving luxuriantly in the soft Southern To tell of the strife of the right with the adding a 10th class, providing for the electricime, as its dew sprinkled petals proudly Mr. Sinclair moved to lay the amend- the flowing York river, a few miles below the historical town of Yorktown, a gentle-The Chair announced that if the amend- man of culture, whose parents were in

of the grand Pacific. Mr. Fou's amendment was put to a vote tor. He visited the States, but could find follows:

on the banks of the placed York. educated and graceful young lady just Rome. They were duly married after a short acquaintance; the ceremony being celebrated with great eclat, and creating no little flatter in the fashionable and wealthy cirno comment or inquiry, as it was one al-

A few weeks after the marriage, as the husband and wife naturally inquired into claimed. "I cannot mistake the accent. I each other's past history and antecedents, was a soldier in the Confederate army! 1 quainted with each other, the denouement son came-they were father and daughterthe father had been superseded by strong moment command. emotional passion of sexual love. Both the eyes of man and of God. His daughter was not dead, as he supdistant State, and who also, with her hus- and passed on.

into filial parental devotion.

Care of Horses. The London Horse Book says: portions, without regard to their ages, As he read, his attention was arrested as their constitutions, and their work; benever before by the latter clause, "the Son cause the impropriety of such a practice is of man hath not where to lay his head." self-evident. Yet it is constantly done, He paused, and gazed around upon the and is the basis of disease of every kind.

where to lay his head." He was greatly Damaged corn is exceedingly injurious,

Hay or grass alone will not support a horse under hard work, because there is the luxurious couches and various arrange- When a horse is worked hard its food

Rack feeding is wasteful. The better beauty and delicacy as no amount of labor make that outrageous attack on me in the rare exotics, the beautiful statuary, the plan is to feed with chopped hay, from a with scissors and needle could imitate. with scissors and needle could imitate. The marvel is that these really beautiful 'Mr. Wilkes, much surprised, straight-"All this for me, and yet my divine Lord thrown about, and is more easily chewed productions can be sold at retail at fifteen ened up and squared off, and exclaimed, this one thought being ever present to his to the animal's taste, and more easily di- terial is so flexible that a curtain may be to think he was drawing a pistol. mind, "The Son of man had not where to gested. A teaspoonful of salt in a bucket of water is sufficient.

nutriment. - Turf, Field and Fire Side. Burial of a Distinguished Mason.

The funeral of Robert D. Holmes, Past said to him, "Sir, were you in earnest in Lodge of the State met at the house of the fore them where to chew, and they might editor, George Wilkes." offering me the sum you did for my resi- deceased and escorted the remains to Grace be a little more delicate in the matter." dence? "Yes," said his friend, "I should church, corner of Broadway and Tenth J. C. Beecher, a prominent citizen of and up to last evening no legal proceedbe too happy to rurchase it." "Then" said street. The entire body of the church Clinton, Iowa, died of paralysis on Saturings had been instituted by Mr. Wilkes. the merchant, "the place is yours. I dare was reserved for members of the fraterniday, two hours after gaining a suit of $25,not keep it, for the Son of man had not ty. The Episcopal Church service for the ood damages entered against him. The property was soon transferred, a remains were then exposed to the view of comfortable but farmore humble residence friends and members of the order, after secured, into which the merchant and his which they were escorted to Greenwood family cheerfully removed.

Cemetery by members of the Grand Lodge and of St. John's Commandery of Knights

The large sum received for the splendid

Tompler of which deceased was a mem officers to be voted for in the coming elec- mansion was as cheerfully given to that Templar, of which deceased was a memine of march,

THE DOWN.TRODDEN LAND.

BY FATHER RYAN

Yes, give me the land where the ruins are dead; Yes, give me a land that is blest by the dust, And bright with the deeds of the down-trodden es, give me the land where the battle's wild es, give me the land of the wreck and the There's grandeur in graves -there's glory in ment was tabled, it would carry the bill moderate circumstances. It was during For out of the gloom future brightness is born, downward in the abdomen. The upper The motion was pressed to a vote and of a home, Lis iriends, relatives, a loving And the graves of the dead with the grass over-incident. to some relative during the yellow fever pleasure by every admirer of that great been sitting on the case this afternoon, Mr. Moore, of Chowan, moved to except season at New Orleans, as at the same and good man Stonewall Jackson. After and adjourned this evening till Monday. Carritack county from the provisions of time did a little girl of another family, of describing her visit to the church of St. | The following facts have been elicited:

Shall yet be a rock in the temple of right.

no clas to his deceased wife's sister; he From the church I continued my walk premises it appears that she was to have thought, naturally, she, too, had died .- towards the palace of Casar, and as I stood been married on Tuesday next to a man by He returned to the golden State, and time attempting to read an inscription on the the name of J. Ebersoll, of this city .-A message was received from the Senate and the whirling excitement of business arch of Septimus Severus an incident oc- Marks of blood on a lower window-sill inconcurring in the Hease resolution ad- soon heated his sorrows, and effaced, ap- curred which I think well worth relating- dicate that the murderer escaped that way. journing sine die on the 28th instant, parently, all recollections of his old home at least that sent me onward with a feeling An umbrella was found in the house After the transaction of some further | Shortly after the completion of the Pa- been skin to that which many a Roman with dark clothes was seen comin ine railroad there arrived at this city a woman has experienced at mention of cer- the direction of the house about 1 o'clock, gentleman, his wife and a beautiful, well tain names that gave a brighter glory to and proceeded up street. Ebersoll was ar-withdraw his resignation as requested by really of about eighteen summers. It was question to a friendly priest who passed been married, and leaves one child about by chance that the young lady and aged me. At that moment a French soldier, in seven years old living at Lima. Her formwidower met-and to meet was to love. - the uniform of the Pontifical Zouaves, ap- er husband is supposed to be now in Kenproached, and politely lifted his hat. When tucky. It is thought the murderer must the priest had given me answer, he said: have been wounded, as he was tracked "Are you not an American lady?"

"I am," I replied. most quite as common as that of Smith or ginia, and a gratified smile lighted up his 000 for the detection of the murderer. sunburnt visage. "I thought so! I thought so!" he ex-

You may rest assured I was not slow in posed; but, after the death of his wife, Jackson was!" continued the soldier, liam Leland, of the Metropolitan Hotel. was kindly taken charge of by his sister- while a shade of the deepest sadness set- These gentlemen were formerly on the order to adapt it, as far as possible, to the in-law, who had married and moved to a tled over his face, and he touched his hat best of terms, but it seems that of late band, accompanied his wife's daughter to | As I looked forward to the Arch of Sep. on the paper called the Turf, Field and

and immortality for all future ages.

ping altar of patriotism. Paper Clothing and Articles of Use.

for me, and yet the Son of man had not of each; one that works little should have tion of the fashionable skirts of the day, Major Leland immediately stepped up or stamped cut with open work of such to Mr. Wilkes, saying, "Why did you showing as little creasing as chintz similar ny, raised his cane and struck Wilkes sev-Oats should be bruised for an old horse, ly treated. There are also table-cloths eral smart blows on the head and shoulwise made of it, and produces a cheap and on his back with his fists. useful covering for farniture, and even The affair created an immense sensation serves for shoes. - Paper Trade Reporter. on the street, and the scene was witnessed Grand Master of the Masons of the State of New York, took place Wednesday after-shouldn't people have more sense than to of the crowd as expeditiously as possible, Toward the close of the day he sent for noon at New York, and was a very impos-his friend of the previous evening, and ing affair. The officers of the Grand other public places? The world is all be-

DIED.

MARRIED

In Philadelphia, on the 9th of February, 1870, Mrs. ANN SANDERS, widow of the late Dr. Robert A. Sanders and daughter of James L. G. the hangman, is to tie it up for fear of the Baker, Esq., of Jackson county, Florida.

RATES OF ADVERTISING

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every insertion, $1.

Special Notices will be charged $200 per square foreachand every insertion.

All Obituaries and private publications of every character, are charged as advertisements. No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, by A Dreadful Murder-A Woman in Mansfield, Ohio, Milled in her Bed-Room.

The Pittsburgh Commercial of Monday contains the following dispatch from Mansfield, Ohio, rehearing a dreadful tragedy: Early this morning it was discovered that Mary J. Lunsford, a seamstress, about thirty years old, residing near the Atlantic depot, had been murdered in her bed .-The most intense excitement was created by the discovery, and several thousand upper slats of the bed were broken, her Yes, give me a land with a grave in each spot, head resting near the floor. Her head was and names on the graves that shall not be for- almost severed from the body by a horrible head resting near the floor. Her head was gash in the throat extending from ear to ear; another laying one cheek open from the mouth to the throat, and a deep cut, part of the bed and pillow were saturated with blood, a large pool of which was on the floor. Her arms were terribly beaten, of and her body bore evidence of a fearful struggle with the fiend. A pegro living in another part of the Stonewall Jackson in Rome_Interesting and cries about I o'clock, and tried the same house was awakened by the struggle door, but could not gain admission. He Miss Sallie A. Brock, of Virginia, who is then went to a neighbor for help, which After years of toil, drudgery and rever- now on a visit to Rome, is furnishing a was refused on the plea that he must have es of fertunes in the mines, he came to series of interesting letters from the Eter- been dreaming, and that everything was this city and engaged in business. He be nal City to the New York Metropolitan right. He then waited till morning before and the bill was rejected. Yeas 11 nays an were opposed to all of the amend- ing successful, soon amassed an immense Record. From her last letter, dated Feb- he acquainted other persons with his susfortune. Hi beleved wife had died dur- ruary 15th, we make the following inter- picions that something was wrong in the ing a prevailing epidemic while on a visit esting extract, which will be read with woman's apartment. A coroner's jury has the same name and age as his little daugh- Maria di Ava Coeli, Miss Brock writes as The woman came here from Cincinnati in August last. By letters found on the of pride in my heart which must have marked "William Larabie." A large man some distance by blood on the ground. As yet nothing has transpired to furnish a "Are you not from the States of the clue to the murderer. The county commissioners and City Council met this morn-I proudly confessed my nativity in Vir- ing and promptly offered a reward of $1,-

From the New York World, March 16. A Rencontre in Broadway, New York-George Wilkes Caned by Major Wm. Le.

A scene occurred on Broadway yesterman and wife; the instinctive love of the extending to him my hand, and expressing day afternoon, which, for a short time, parent for the child and the daughter for gratitude in all the language I could at the caused a great sensation and materially shocked the promenaders of that gay The priest stood by in astonishment, not thoroughfare. It appears that for some innocent at heart, but foully criminal in understanding this remarkable demonstra- time past a storm had been brewing between the editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the "A great man !- a great man Stonewall Times, Mr. George Wilkes, and Major Wil-Major Leland had bestowed some favors this coast, to meet as strangers, lovers and timus Severus, and further on to that of Farm, which is a bitter rival to the Spirit, subsequently parent and child-as they Titus, and still further on to that of Con- and hence the jealousy and hatred of the were—cultivated passionate love changed stantine, I could not help thinking that in proprietor of the latter journal were generations vet to come some one might aroused. Mr. Wilkes expressed his dis-Wonderfully strange indeed are the for- stand, as I did then, and ponder over an pleasure several times to Major Leland and tuitous circumstances which control and inscription engraven upon some monument his brother Charles, but the Major, feelguide the footsteps of susceptible mortals. somewhere on the soil of my own dear ing that he was under no personal obligamother State recording the name and deeds tion to the editor of the Spirit, refused to of Stonewall Jackson-not less great and mend his ways, or to conform to the wishfar more good than those which won for es of his former friend. On Saturday last Rome's mighty men crowns and arches, he was astonished, on taking up the Spirit, to find in its columns what he regarded a This episode of the morning almost un. gross attack on himself, an article in fitted me for research. I found myself as I which Major Leland was dished up to walked on seeing and yet scarely seeing. the public as a coward. In carving In imagination I was back again in the Mr. Leland, the editor also discovered capital of the Southern Confederacy, and other properties in him which he denomifrom every lip I listened to the praises of nated accordingly. Major Leland, after him whose praises so gladly leaped from reading the article, denounced it as a mean, the heart of the French soldier, and anon cowardly attack, and told his brother he I beheld a long military and civic proces- would get satisfaction from the editor in sion, a noble hearse with nodding plumes; some way. He seemed to be most offend-I heard the dull, dead notes of the muffled ed at being represented as a coward, and drum and the low wail of martial music as | said he did not care for anything else that it pierced the agonized air, and I saw the had been written about him. He asserted star which had given us promise of a na that he was no coward, and that to prove tion begin to fade, and darker and darker it he would meet Wilkes anywhere, and upon his own selfish gratification. As well the horse chew his food more and digest it grew until it went out, and it was night under any circumstances. His brother, with us-midnight to every hope that had Mr. Charles Leland, endeavored to disenkindled the flames on the crimson, drip. snade him from any attempt to seek redress by violence, and advised him to pursue the course provided by law where persons are libelled by editors. Major Leland, in his frenzy, replied that he knew The Japanese paper handkerchiefs are his business, and that he would conduct to him, "All this for me, and yet the Son hard its food should chiefly be hay-be- assuredly coming, if a contemporary be the case himself. He saw no more of Mr. of man had not where to lay his head "- cause oats supply more nourishment and right. The paper-collar manufacture now Wilkes until about two o'clock yesterday The bate the Majority Report the previous question upon the bill. The works. This bill authorizes the Governor, He passed a sleepless night, this one idea flesh-making material than any other kind has been extended to less prominent but afternoon, when the two met in Broadway, more important garments of great strength just below Canal street, near the Brand For a saddle or coach horse, half a peck and flexibility, which can be sewed with a reth House. Major Leland was walking up Descending to his dining room, as he of oats and eighteen pounds of good hay surveyed the elaborate table furniture and are sufficient. If the hay is not good, add a woven fabric. The inventor has particu-

and Redeemer had not where to lay his head." He went to his office, but found Sprinkle the hay with water that has for bed furniture are also made, a set costhimself incapable of attending to business, salt dissolved in it, because it is pleasing ing at retail about $1 50. The felted ma- coat in such a manner as led Mr. Leland twisted into a rope and shaken out again, Major Leland, without further ceremoby a large crowd.

That ended the affair for the present.

The "Congregationalist" advises ministers who have "throats" to throw their physic and their wrappers to the dogs; let their beards grow, as God intended should breath of heaven, even when it blows off a snow-bank, instead of enervating them with the steam and sweat of their nasty bandages. The worst use to which one can put a human throat, next to that of